Dégustation du millésime 2014 (Décembre 2015)

Domaine Les Teyssonnières 2014 ★★★★★

(vat, bottling April 2016) handsome dark red robe. Big grilling features on the nose, roast pork, rosemary, a hint of subdued soaked red cherries, with reduction. The palate also shows reduction, but its heart is filled with stylish, smooth Grenache plum fruit that has Pinot notions in its svelte presence. The finish develops mixed herbs of Provence. This is going to be an elegant, serene Gigondas, with a notch of class; I like its calm authority. 14°. 13,000 b. €15 is fair. From 2018.
